ID	2183
Curricular Unit	Psychopathology
Regent	Margarida Gaspar de Matos
Learning Outcomes	This Course aims at defining the object and the objectives of Psychopathology.
Syllabus	INTRODUCTION Psychopathology: Conceptand socio historical development NORMAL AND ABNORMAL Criteria: medical, statistical, sociological, psychological Main theoretical models and their use. Main common errors Psychopathology (DSM IV criteria) COMPREHENSIVE PSYCHOPATHOLOGY Signs of disorder Conscience and orientation; Attention and concentration, memory, perception; thinking and language, non-verbal communication, social competence; affection, movement, sleep, sexual behaviour, nutrition, aggression; planning/ evaluating/ deciding/ acting Data Collection in Psychopathology Clinical assessment and observing mental state Interviewing and testing Case studies
Evaluation	Group work with public presentation. Written Test.
Bibliography	Main bibliography: Abreu , J.P (1994) Introdução à Psicopatologia compreensiva, Lisboa, FC Gulbenkian. Belloch, A et al (1995) manual de Psicopatologia vol I e II, Lisboa, Macgrow-Hill. Other bibliography: APA (1996) DSM IV , Lisboa Climpse. Pires, C (2003) Manual de Psicopatologia, ISLA.