

ID	2207
Curricular Unit	Curriculum Development
Regent	Carlos Januário
Learning Outcomes	This course focuses on the design of pedagogical programs for special populations, at the different areas and contexts where this knowledge is required - (a) lifelong psychomotor rehabilitation and atypical human development; (b) social integration, accessibility, and new technologies and; (c) promotion of personal and social skills.
Syllabus	The topics are organized and structured around two centres of interest, corresponding to the themes within the concept of curricular development: (a) Curricular Theory; (b) Planning - the techniques and approaches of an organizational process , regarding pre-interactive decisions and corresponding products (the plans).
Evaluation	Continuous assessment: (a) two tests and; (b) a project work in groups. c) Participations and presences in the theoretical an practical classes. The final assessment is the mean of these three tasks. Students must attend a minimum of 2/3 of the lecture-practicals classes.
Bibliography	D'Hainault, Louis (1980). Educação - Dos Fins aos Objectivos. Coimbra: Almedina. Januário, Carlos (1988). O Currículo e a Reforma do Ensino. Lisboa: L. Horizonte. Ribeiro, António Carrilho (1990). Desenvolvimento Curricular. Lisboa: Texto Editora. Zabalza, M. (1992). Planificação e Desenvolvimento Curricular na Escola. Rio Tinto: Edições ASA.