

ID	2224
Curricular Unit	Introduction to Human Development
Regent	Celeste Simões
Learning Outcomes	The course aims that the student: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Identifies the main theories on human development; - Identifies the basic assumptions of the developmental approach; - Identifies and describes the various stages of human development in the areas: emotional, social, language and cognition and the general and particular aspects allied to them; -Identifies factors, processes and situations of risk and protective on an individual or group level, for the positive development; -Identifies and describe determinants aspects of individual behaviour, throughout its development, taking into consideration perceptive, cognitive, behavioural, emotional and motivational aspects, besides the broader social context.
Syllabus	A. SOCIO-EMOTIONAL, COGNITIVE AND LANGUAGE IN LIFE-SPAN <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Conceptual Framework: The first months of life: The childhood: The adolescence: The adulthood: The old age: B. SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR DEVELOPMENT <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Development of personal and social skills, emotional intelligence and socialization Social learning Communication and social behaviour: interpersonal communication, non-verbal and verbal Factors associated with social behaviour
Evaluation	Written test (at the end of the semester) concerning matters of the discipline. Presentation of a work group (public and written) in classes.

Bibliography

Mitchell, P. & Ziegler (2007). Fundamentals of development: The psychology of childhood. Hove: Psychology Press.

Piaget, J. (1983). Piaget's theory. New York: John Wiley.

Sprinthall, N. A., & Collins, W. A. (1999). Psicologia do adolescente: Uma abordagem desenvolvimentalista (2.^a ed.). Lisboa: Fundação Calouste Gulbenkian.

Other bibliography:

Bandura, A. (2001). Social cognitive theory: An agentic perspective. Annual Review of Psychology. Retrieved 20-09-2002, from www.findarticles.com

Feldman, R. S. (2001). Compreender a psicologia. Lisboa: McGraw-Hill.

Matos, M. G., Simões, C., Tomé, G., Gaspar, T., Camacho, I., Diniz, J. A., et al. (2006). A saúde dos adolescentes portugueses: Hoje em 8 anos. <http://www.fmh.utl.pt/aventurasocial/pdf/191206/nacional.pdf>

Simões, C. (2007). Comportamentos de risco na adolescência. Lisboa: FCG/FCT.

Sprinthall, N. A., & Sprinthall, R. C. (1993). Psicologia Educacional. Lisboa: McGraw-Hill.

(...)