

ID	2925
Curricular Unit	Internship Activities II
Regent	Ana Cristina Guerreiro Espadinha
Learning Outcomes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Deepen the knowledge concerning population and the different pathologies. 2. Observation of psychomotor intervention in the fields of: education and/or re-education, rehabilitation and/or psychomotor therapy. 3. Develop and implement action plans with psychomotor direct supervision of the local supervisor. 4. Analyse the process and product of the psychomotor intervention programs against the objectives set. 5. Participate and streamline institutional life (institutional meetings, informal exchanges, networks and partnerships, etc.).
Syllabus	The activities of the various nuclei of Internship will take place in different ways depending on the type of institution, its scope and target population. However, the following conditions are common to all the activities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - An academic professor for core training (each internship may involve more than one institution) - Tutorial supervision - Supervision by the local supervisor - Attendance involving supervised monitoring of the process of assessment, planning and implementation of the intervention - 5 hours per week - Location: Public or private institutions that deliver services for special populations - Mandatory attendance of a psychomotor professional
Evaluation	On the curricular unit Internship Activities II, evaluation will take into account the combination of parameters, with partial expressions leading to a single global assessment (P1 + P2 + P3 + P4): P1 - Approval and evaluation by the local supervisor - 15% P2 - Report - 60% P3 - Event Production for the dissemination of the internship - 10% P4 - Analysis of a case - 15%
Bibliography	It depends on each place of internship and will be recommended by the academic supervisor