

ID	3313
Curricular Unit	Rehabilitation and Ethics
Regent	Pedro Parrot Morato
Learning Outcomes	Development a critical view of Rehabilitation ethical issues. To be acquainted with ethical principles of the human being. To be acquainted with ethical guidelines for practice and research in Human Rehabilitation.
Syllabus	Ethics issues and Morality. Fundamental rights of individuals. Ethical Committees. From Theory to Practice. Professional practices in Rehabilitation. From Assessment to Therapy Intervention. Professional Ethical Codes. Ethical Principles for conducting research with human participants.
Evaluation	1 final written test (50%) + oral test (50%).
Bibliography	Singer, P. (2000). Ética Prática. Ed. Gradiva. Lisboa. Patrão Neves, M. (1998). Comissões de Ética. Ed. Centro de Estudos de Bioética. P. Açores. Beauchamp, T. & Chidress, J. (1995). Principles of Biomedical ethics. New York/Oxford. Oxford University Press.