

ID	3746
Curricular Unit	Psychopathology
Regent	Maria Margarida Nunes Gaspar de Matos
Learning Outcomes	This Course aims at defining the object and the objectives of Psychopathology.
Syllabus	INTRODUCTION Psychopathology: Concept and socio historical development NORMAL AND ABNORMAL Criteria: medical, statistical, sociological, psychological Main theoretical models and their use Main common errors Psychopathology (DSM IV criteria) COMPREHENSIVE PSYCHOPATHOLOGY Signs of disorder Conscience and orientation Attention and concentration, memory, perception thinking and language, non-verbal communication, social competence Affection, movement, sleep, sexual behaviour, nutrition, aggression Planning/evaluating/deciding/acting Data Collection in Psychopathology Clinical assessment and observing mental state Interviewing and testing Case studies (...)
Evaluation	Group work and oral presentation (50%) Individual work and oral presentation (50%)
Bibliography	Main bibliography: Abreu , JP (1994). Introdução à Psicopatologia compreensiva, Lisboa, FC Gulbenkian. Belloch, A et al (1995). Manual de Psicopatologia, vol I e II, Lisboa, MacGraw-Hill. Other bibliography: Matos, MG (2005). Comunicação, gestão de conflitos e saúde na escola, FMH APA (1996) DSM IV, Lisboa Climepsi Pires, C (2003). Manual de Psicopatologia, ISLA