

|                          |   |
|--------------------------|---|
| ID                | 620   |
| Curricular Unit   | Sociohistorical Analysis of the Education   |
| Regent            | António José Mendes Rodrigues   |
| Learning Outcomes | The student should be able: (a) be acquainted with the main developments of schooling, teaching profession, and educational discourses (XVI-XX centuries); (b) characterize the development of Portuguese school system; (c) apply the historical and sociological knowledge to the analysis of educational phenomena and to the understand the teachers and the school cultures; (d) promote reflexive and critical analysis with the contents of teaching professional occupation and the processes involving their personal and professional career.                    |
| Syllabus          | Origins and emergence of educational systems (from sixteenth to eighteenth century). The building of "mass schooling" and Nation-state school systems (late nineteenth century early twentieth century). The New Education Movement as an educational discourse at the nineteenth century. The expansion and crisis of the school systems (post II World War). History of the Portuguese educational system (late XVIII-XX centuries). The professionalization of teachers and teaching (late XVIII-XX centuries). The Democratization of Portuguese School System. |
| Evaluation        | The students will be considered aproved at SESO by two possible ways: 1. doing the final examination; 2. doing the different elements submitted by the lecturer al over semester. This last "model" consists in: one evaluation test (A), with contents of magistral lessons; and the presentation, in group-work, of different syntesis of the contents of the other lessons (B). Final classification will be getted by the formula: <math>(2(A) + B)/3</math>   |

Bibliography

- ARCHER, M. 1979. Social Origins of Educational Systems. London: Sage.
- CARVALHO, R.. 1986. História do Ensino em Portugal. Lisboa: Fundação Calouste Gulbenkian.
- GOMES, J. F. 1995. Para a História da Educação em Portugal: Seis estudos. Porto: Porto Editora.
- HAMILTON, D. 1989. Towards a Theory of Schooling. London: The Falmer Press.
- MEYER, J., RAMIREZ, F. & SOYSAL, Y. 1992. World expansion of mass education, 1870-1980. Sociology of Education, 65 (2), pp. 128-149.
- MÓNICA, M. F.. 1978. Educação e Sociedade no Portugal de Salazar. A escola primária salazarista. 1926-1939. Lisboa: Editorial Presença / GIS.
- NÓVOA, A.. 1990. Do Mestre-Escola ao Professor do Ensino Primário, 2ª edição. Lisboa: Edições FMH.
- PETITAT, A.. 1992. Production de l'École - Production de la Société. Genève e Paris: Librairie Droz.
- PINTASSILGO, J.. 1998. República e Formação de Cidadãos. Lisboa, Edições Colibri.
- STÖER, S.. 1986. Educação e Mudança Social em Portugal. Porto: Afrontamento.